Mr Racing's Predicted Finishing Order:

1 st	3	MUTAWAAJID (H.Bowman)	$2.75	I'm a believer. What a smart rising talent of the turf. Hardest to beat.
2 nd	1	Mentality (D.Beadman)	$3.50	The only horse in the field coming "back" in grade. Logical danger.
3 rd	2	Teranaba (J.Ford)	$13.0	Fair performance first-up and will only improve here. Plenty of ability.

Summary:

Mutawaajid looks the winner. Could be one of Sydney's next superstars, based on his rapid rise to stardom thus far. Mentality is racing honest at Weight For Age level. 3yo's typically go very well when returning to take on their own age, but he has bumped into another top-liner here and is awkwardly drawn, despite the long run into the first turn. Leave that to Beadman to negate that problem.

Impossible race for the minors. I originally liked Teranaba and Bryanno's Gift for the minors, but it doesn't appear as though they will get great runs in the race. Discorsi is drawn to get the run of the race. Check the betting about him, and watch for Fianchetto hitting the line late. Might be one to follow, heading towards the Derby.
