Mr Racing's Selections:

Rated Comments:

1 st	10 MANSION HOUSE (D Oliver)	$3.80	Nice drop in weight. 1600m suits. Will make his own luck in the run.
2 nd	8 El Presidente (T Turner)	$3.30	Practically unbeaten and unlucky when beat. Can't fault winning form.
3 rd	11 New Spice (Ms J Valas)	$8 .0	Will get a long way back, but form is strong around Mansion House.

Best Roughie:

2 Idyllic Prince (J Brown)	$13.0	Solid form in the WFA lead-ups around the in-form Grasspatch Girl.

Betting Suggestions:

Mansion House 2 units Each-Way or 2units x 3 units. CLEARLY the value runner on current markets. I don't have many 2nd market rated horses as confident bets, but this is one.

Race Summary:

Mansion House drops nicely in weight from 59kg when 2nd in the 1400m G2 WFA Lee Steer, one of the key Railway lead-up races. Ran home a smarter final section on that occasion, than El Presidente did when winning the Group 3 1400m Asian Beau with 53kg. El Presidente has won again since and is not putting a foot wrong. Will be giving Mansion House a start, which should set this up for a very good finish. One of the two should salute, and I have no option in the current market place but to be on Mansion House at 1x2, 1x3 or Each-Way. New Spice ran over the top of my top pick Mansion House 2 starts back. Drawn wide and will get a long way back and need luck, but is likely to finish in a hurry. Idyllic Prince, Royal Lott and to a lesser extent Beat The Storm can all be specked for small money if betting around the favourite, as they are also value runners.
