Race Summary:

It seems a lot of the racing public has gone off her, but I'm struggling to let go. I refer to Miss Finland and I'm banking on her class getting her home here. IF she puts in a disappointing performance in one of the more winnable Group 1's you'll see, at a Track & Distance she's unbeaten at, then I will agree that maybe her best is behind her. At weight for age, she gets weight off a field of inferior rivals. The other good hopes in the race, Shinzig, Casino Prince and Niconero would not have been spoken in the same breath as her 6-12 months ago. I can't possibly bet up on her, based on my map, but I also can't oppose her in this line-up. The 3 other hopes mentioned are the obvious chances outside of the "mares". The plural refers to the fact I think Cinque Cento is a fantastic chance in this up to 1600m in a moderately run race. She's very hot and cold, but I just can't get her second-up 3rd to El Segundo and Haradasun out of my head. The 4th horse that day was Efficient. Publishing is a talented and lightly raced galloper who makes his own luck, and is the pick from the speed map, but he is poorly in at the weights with 59kg, taking on the top grade for the first time. Remains a query at the distance, and subsequently looks a risk.

Rated Comments:

$3.80	Awesome mare at this track & distance. Sweating on a bit of tempo.
$6.0	Mick Price may have found the key to this enigma. Good last start.
$6.50	On-pace mare who will get a nice run and can improve sharply.
$6.50	Beaten by the barrier in the Orr, but drawn well today and racing well.
