- 2nd    6 Bashful Girl (S Arnold)
- 3rd    3 El Daana (D Dunn)
- 4th    5 Queen Of Queens (D Smith)

Betting Suggestions:

5 Units WIN 1 Zarita

Lay Propositions:

NIL

Rated Comments:

- $2.0    One of the best staying fillies in training. Looks to have this won
- $5.50    Drawn poorly, but if she can get some tempo, will be putting them in
- $7.50    Drawn to be a little closer than usual. Capable if things go her way
- $9.0    Talented and lightly raced filly. 4 wins from 7 starts and well drawn

Race Summary:

Along with Arapaho Miss, Zarita is probably the best middle distance staying filly in training. With that alone, along with the adaptability and ability to race forward and make her own luck. Looks to have this race in her keeping. Bashful Girl comes out of the same formlines and is well in the mix. Drew poorly and S Arnold now has his work cut out. If they go silly in front, then she looks the best of the run-on horses. In that category also is El Daana who drew much better. Has always had ability and this looks a lovely race for her. Queen Of Queens has also drawn well and not willing to dismiss her totally, with such a solid winning record. All in all, things would have to go wrong for mine, for Zarita to have her colours lowered.

Rated Comments:

$1.10 I can't fathom her not winning in a set weights mares race
 $16.0 Goes quick and has race fitness in her favour. Good win last start
 Locally trained mare. Ran time to win here last start beating talented Gabbidon
 Group 1 staying filly resuming. Will only be warming up late

Betting Suggestions:

Unless you have lots and lots and lots of spare money to stick on number 1. Then just watch.

Lay Propositions:

Anything outside the top 2 picks. Good luck getting action.

Race Summary:

*Laughs out loud*. Absolute no brainer and money for jam for Miss Andretti who is home in this, with our without the scratching of Royal Asscher. Will win with a leg in the air if she's 3 parts fit. A set weights sprint race for "mares only" in Adelaide for the best sprinter in the country. Wow. I've never rated a horse as short in a long long time. Newitt will surely ride the champ nice and positive. They just don't have the ability to soften her up in front. No comment the rest.
