

PuntingAce Feature Race Analysis

GROUP 1 ROSEHILL GUINEAS

Rosehill Gardens 2000m

SR7 – 3:40pm Dubai Rosehill Guineas (G1) 2000m $500,000

SPEED: MODERATE-EVEN

BACK	MIDFIELD - HANDY				LEAD
	Solo Flyer (14)	Red Ruler (13)
Pillar Of Hercules (12)	Largo Lad (10)	Guillotine (11)	Marching (6)	Dealer Principal (4)	Mission Critical (8)
Nom Du Jeu (2)	Littorio (7)	Emperor (9)	Arlington (3)	Steel Giant (1)	Kingda Ka (5)

INSIDE RAIL ⇨

Mr Racing's Selections:

		Rated	Comments:
1 st	12 LARGO LAD (C Williams)	$5.50	Sneaking home in the Rosehill Guineas. Crying out for the extra trip. Go well
2 nd	1 Marching (D Oliver)	$6.0	A bit one-paced in the Randwick Guineas, but not beaten far. Better placed here
3 rd	10 Guillotine (H Bowman)	$7.50	Poor first-up in the Chipping Norton. Improved last start. Screaming out for 10f
4 th	2 Littorio (C Brown)	$9.0	Will be winding up late again and warming into it. One to save for the Derby

Betting Suggestions:

12 Largo Lad 3 Units Win
1 Marching 1x3 Units W&P

Lay Propositions:

2 Littorio

Race Summary:

I'm looking for something here who is screaming out for the 2000m, but won't necessarily be looking for further once they get it. I think Largo Lad and Marching fit the bill best. Largo Lad is a very nice horse due for a change of luck. Was finding the line late last start behind the main wall of horses and caught the eye. First run for the Hayes camp and I can see him running into the race at the right time today. Marching wasn't beaten far in the Randwick Guineas, but couldn't quicken with the likes of Weekend Hussler and Triple Honour when racing handy with them. Back to more a stayer's race today, which suits him perfectly. Bolted in, in the AAMI Vase in the Spring and this could be his race this prep. Guillotine and Littorio fall into the bracket of horses who will appreciate every metre of the 2000m, but unfortunately will want even further! They'll be doing their best work late and are definitely two to follow into the Derby. Steel Giant is the knockout. Spec at odds.